

My Friendly Fences,

Over the years, you have no idea how much I've enjoyed your company.

I'm sorry to say goodbye, but there is something to continue singing about:

The sale of this place will ensure you always have somewhere to call home.

So, don't worry about me, I'll be taken care of. I've left it to The Nature Conservancy to see to that.

Your friend,

Dorothy Miller

Oh my Fragrant Babies,

You really make me stop and smell the Roses.

And though today you're a bouquet, tomorrow your colors will help this little house become part of something really BIG - I've left it to The Nature Conservancy to see to that!

So don't worry about me,
I'll be taken care of.
And because of that,
I know you will be too.

Your Appreciative Friend,
Gabe Winchester
